

After watching my presentation with and without audio, I would like to

- Stop looking at my notes as much and make more eye contact
- Start using more hand gestures and be more animated
- Continue smiling and showing warmth to my audience

I would give myself 2 fist bumps for this speech. Although I had lots of room for improvement, I think I did well for my first speech.